

SAN ANTONIO, TEXAS –San Antonio Congressman Charlie Gonzalez congratulates Judge Juan F. Vasquez for his reappointment to the United States Tax Court for a second term after being confirmed by the United States Senate. Judge Vasquez was first nominated by President Clinton in 1995, and he is the first and only Hispanic Tax Court judge. Congressman Charles Gonzalez issued the following statement regarding Judge Vasquez’s reappointment:

“Judge Vasquez has been a tireless and dedicated public servant for the citizens of the United States and proud son of San Antonio, Texas. His story is a testament to the merits of hard work, humility, and educational excellence. It was my honor to support his nomination because I know that his commitment to fairness and justice as well as his expertise in the field of tax law are unrivaled in his profession. Congratulations Judge Vasquez for your well deserved reappointment, and on behalf of your hometown of San Antonio, thank you for the work you do for our country.”

On behalf of the Congressional Hispanic Caucus, Congressman Charlie Gonzalez submitted a letter of support for Judge Vasquez’s reappointment to the Senate Committee on Finance.
